think so, In this Report, if you carefully read it, he has brought out a big problem being faced by the bureaucracy -- Malhotraji also referred to that -- that many senior officers and the heads of the investigating agencies area hesitant to come out with facts because of their fear that they would ultimately be crucified.

That is the sad plight to which they have brought our country. Here I would like to deal with the issue raised by Shri Narayanasamyji. He has said that bureaucrats ar to be blamed for all these maladies. I am sorry, I beg to differ. Who are calling shots in our country? Politicians. Who is the chief executive? The Prime Minister -- politically elected. We cannot blame others. We can say with full confidence that we are stating the facts when we say that there is corruption in bureaucracy. This Report, the Vohra Committe Report, states with remarkable courage that even the judiciary could not escape the embrace of the mafia. Even the members of the judicial system have not escaped from the embrace of the mafia. With al the limitations of this Report, I want to appreciate that so much of explosive material is now IN the hands of the public, the Members of Parliament. And in her death, Naina Sahniji has served the country. But for the gruesome, ghastly murder of Naina Sahni perhaps this Vohra Committee Report might not have come out and seen the light of day. ...(Interruptions)... Now, if you say so, I want jto say about various other important documents.

श्री संघ प्रिय गौतम (उत्तर प्रदेश): महोदय, सात बज गए हैं, अब सदन को स्थगित कर दिया जाए।

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI SURESH PACHOURI): I was saying the same thing. This Short Duration Discussion was to start at 4 p.m., but it started at 5.30 p.m. I would take the sense of the House as to whether we should continue or not.

श्री संघ प्रिय गौतम : आज सिर्फ ले कर दीजिए।

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI SURESH PACHOURI): Before the House is adjourned for the day, there is another Supplementary List of Business. Mr. Chidambaram has to make a statement

SHRI S.B. CHAVAN: I have only again half a dozen names will be added and there will be no end to the debate. Keeping this in mind, I have no objection to it.
